ONE FOR THE ROAD . . .

In school, we put ourselves into "gear" in which we "cruise" thru the weeks and only "accelerate" on weekends. There are many "turns" in our road, bridges we must cross, and sometimes we even "crash". We still do not "brake" until we reach the end of our road. For there is no turning around. We can only look back at the roads we have traveled.

Susanna

Susanna Monttinen, from Terbola, Finland, spent the year with the J.D. Berkler Jr. family. Susanna participated in Basketball Cheerleading and was an honorary member of FHA. Her classes included English, typing, American government, American History II, horticulture, advanced composition, P.E., and lounge. When asked what she thought of the year, Susanna said, "This last year has been a great experience for me and I will remember it for the rest of my life." We hope that Susanna had a good time throughout her year here, and that she will always think of Lytton as her second home.

SENIOR CLASS WILL

We, the senior class of 1985, being of sane mind and body will the following to the halls of LHS:
Jerald Ackerman wills his ability to eat "spuds" to Jodi Murphy, so she can put a little meat on her bones.
Lisa Auen wills her 'positive' attitude to next year's football team; every little bit helps.
Teresa Bartels wills her ability to get into trouble to Doug and Julie; Nel and Earl will need something to keep them busy when she leaves.
Tammy Berkler wills her ability to stay calm to Jill Haden, so she can put it to good use in future competition.
Amy Buckley wills her driving ability to Michael Todd, the streets of Lytton will never be the same again.
Dennis Degner wills his romantic grace to Grant Meyer in hopes that he'll shed his "granamalism" and find that special someone.
Janet Everts wills her giggles to the halls of LHS because, after we leave, they'll need something to brighten them.
Sandy Harms wills her ability to do cheers to Deb Casey, so she can have an easier time of it.
Wayne Hinrichs wills the fun he had on the Senior Trip to Miss Lenertz, so she can have a good time at next years Prom.
Carmen Jones wills her ability to keep things quiet to the teachers of LHS, not a real big change, huh?
Susanna Monttinen wills her ability to speak the English language to the junior girls, so they won't have to be so self-conscious and whisper all the time.
Janelle Murphy wills her ability to get crazy to the freshman girls, so they can show some emotion in the upcoming sports.
Paula Nehman wills her wild and crazy clothes to the Etheopians, so at least they can starve in style.
Rick Pitstick wills a "Lott" to Brent Scharn, because he has so little.
Dee Dee Pohlhammer wills her ability to go to school to Becky Batz, who has got a good start already.
Gary Ross wills his ability to study to the underclassmen, good luck guys, you'll really need it!
Jason Wattonville wills his body to David Reynolds, maybe one day he'll become the "Beef" of LHS.
Colleen Williams wills her job at the nursing home to the teachers — they'll be living there soon after we leave anyhow.
Article II. The senior class also leaves the following to the staff of LHS:
To Mr. Derocher we leave our T-shirts in hopes that he can keep warm in future years.
To Miss Block we leave a new clock, so she won't have to keep putting faces on the old one.
To Miss Lenertz we leave Gary Hart, so her dreams can come true.
To Miss Delp we leave Chuck Walters, the Josten's man.
To Mrs. Ackerman we leave the rest of our class fund, to take care of our library fines.
To Mrs. Gidel we leave a Lytton calendar, so she can take the Rockwell City one down.
To Mrs. Hardy we leave the teachers, so that she can analyze their psychological problems.
To Mr. Lantz we leave all the FFA gunners, so he can have a good example for his daughter.
To Mrs. Helmus we leave our voices, they'll need something to keep the vocal department sounding so good.
To Mr. Rutt we leave a new band, because, after the seniors leave, they won't have much.
To Mr. Lyons the guys leave their time spent with girls, since his time is coming to an end.
To Mr. Carr we leave a set of new ties to replace his old ones.
To Jane we leave a bigger room, so she can keep the ISS students in it.
To Donna we leave our debt.
Article III. To Miss Lenertz's government tests and to the halls of LHS, WE LEAVE!!

SENIOR CLASS PROPHESY

November 4, 2005

Extra! Extra! Read all about it! The ballots are all in and the new president of the United States is Mr. "Spudman" himself, Jerald M. Ackerman.

Upon reading this news I quickly ran to the phone and called Teresa Bartels. Teresa was now raising one of the highest quality sheep flocks in Iowa in her spare time, for her job of writing articles for Wallace Farmer took up most of her time. I had kept in close contact with Teresa since; being an agricultural engineer, I had often spoken with her on farm matters. When I told her of the news, she said that we must definitely go to Washington and congratulate him.

I jumped in my SS Monte and started the trip to Teresa's house. I lived in Des Moines and Teresa's home was only on the outskirts of town. Racing up the lane of the Circle B Ranch, I saw Teresa bringing out her usual sixteen bags of luggage for the stay in Washington. Teresa and I went into the house to contact the other members of our class to tell them of our plans for a rendevous.

Two hours later, after Jason finished loading my luggage into his car, we decided Rick Pitstick would be the first classmate on whom we would give a call. Upon answering the phone I heard "You bet! P&R Construction-wanna a house and I'll build it!" I knew instantly that I had gotten the right number. Rick explained that he and Gary Ross were in a construction partnership. He also said that Gary and Tammy were not getting along due to the fact that whenever Gary went down to Florida to visit, he noticed too many of the other Kermits and Florida girls on the beach besided just her. Rick said she missed Iowa because the competition was not as tough here. Gary's construction career was only temporary since he was still trying to become a physical therapist but could not since he had yet to pass his high school chemistry course. I told Rick the good news and he let out some of his normal whoops and hollars.

Getting a hold of Colleen was quite an easy task since she had been in the news quite a bit lately, by being the first woman doctor to do tests on her horse while riding the space shuttle. Colleen was not feeling well due to nausea from her space trip. We're happy to know that Cocoa, her horse, was doing just fine though. Colleen then told us the delightful news that Lisa Auen was a covergirl for the latest, Fur, Fish, & Game magazine. It seems someone had discovered the secret in getting Lisa to smile.

When Teresa hung up the phone, we both decided we needed a short break. She grabbed the sodes and I grabbed the chips and we sat down in front of the television. To our surprise, we saw Janet Everts singing a duet with Dolly Parton. We listened to Janet and Dolly while they sang, still surprised that Janet had made the Nashville Circuit. Teresa turned the channel until I made her stop at the Celtics-76er's game. I about fell out of my chair when I saw Wayne Hinrichs "skying" in for a slama jama for the Boston Celtics. The funny thing though was that Wayne was the only Celtic out on the floor, since the rest of the team was admiring his wife, Jane. We obviously figured that we wouldn't be able to get a hold of Wayne and Janet, so we scratched them off our list. Getting back to work, we decided that Dennis would be the next to be informed of our plans. Julie answered the phone and said that Dennis was out fishing with Pat Brobec. It seems that Paula had gotten married to Pat, and they lived just up the road from Dennis and Julie. Julie said that Paula had just stopped over to get her nine kids who were playing with the two Degner children. Julie let us in on the fact that Dennis's farm was thriving and definite expansion was ahead. I told Julie the news and she said she'd be glad to let Dennis know, but she thought it would be doubtful that Dennis could leave since his livestock took up most of his time.

I asked Jason what he thought that old crazy "Murph" was up to. He said that she was probably up to ther same old crazy stunts. I found her number and gave her a call. Crazy Murph herself answered and we began to chew the fat. I found out that they were living at Matter's south place. She said that they were farming and that she was raising purebred horses. I asked her about going with Jason and I to D.C. and she said it sounded like a good idea, but why didn't I leave the driving up to her this time.

As I hung up, I decided to do some fast talking and get Jason to go to Washington a little early. Well, I've still got it, I talked him into it. Jason and I decided to leave early. As we headed toward our nation's capitol, we discussed the good old days in high school. It was hard to believe that our friend Jerald had really beat our old government teacher in the race to presidency. When we reached the White House, it was necessary for us to ask directions to the Oval Office to see our old friend. We spotted the cleaning lady and tapped her on the shoulder. Boy, were we surprised to find our that our friend Carmen Jones was head honcho of the janitorial duties for the White House. During the course of our chat with Carmen, we also discovered that she was the editor of the local gossip department for the Washington Post. Some things never change.

After I finally stopped the yak session between Teresa and Carmen, we found our way to Jerald's office. When we got there, Jerald was on the phone talking with our old foreign exchange student, Susanna. It seems she was a leader of rebel forces in Finland, trying to annex Sweden. Jerald was trying desperately to get her to back down and forget her plans, but to no avail. As he hung up, he told us he'd be right with us. Waiting for Jerald to get back to us, I picked up the latest edition of Sports Illustrated. To my surprise, I saw Sandy Harms pictured on the front cover in her Skoal Bandit car. It seems that Sandy was a professional race car driver. So far, the article said, Sandy held the record for the most accidents in race car driving's history.

When Jerald came back to us, he had a worried look on his face. He informed us that he had just finished talking to Mr. Carr. It seems Mr. Carr had moved from the ranks of Lytton's high school superintendent to President Ackerman's personal military advisor. Jerald told us of Mr. Carr's diabolical scheme to send the United States' most successful guerilla duo, Amy Buckley and Dee Dee Pohlhammer, to Sweden to help resist Susanna's rebel forces. Dee Dee was driving the two of them in the black bug straight to the White House, since Amy still hadn't gotten her license.

As Jerald and Teresa were talking of old proms in by-gone days, I interrupted them telling Teresa that we had to be on our way since her luggage was blocking the street in front of the White House. We told Jerald about our classmates coming to visit and what we had planned. He told us where we could stay, and that the White House was at our disposal. Getting everything straightened out, I began the two hour task of transferring Teresa's luggage to the White House, excited about the prospect of having the Class of '85 together once again.

SENIOR TRIP

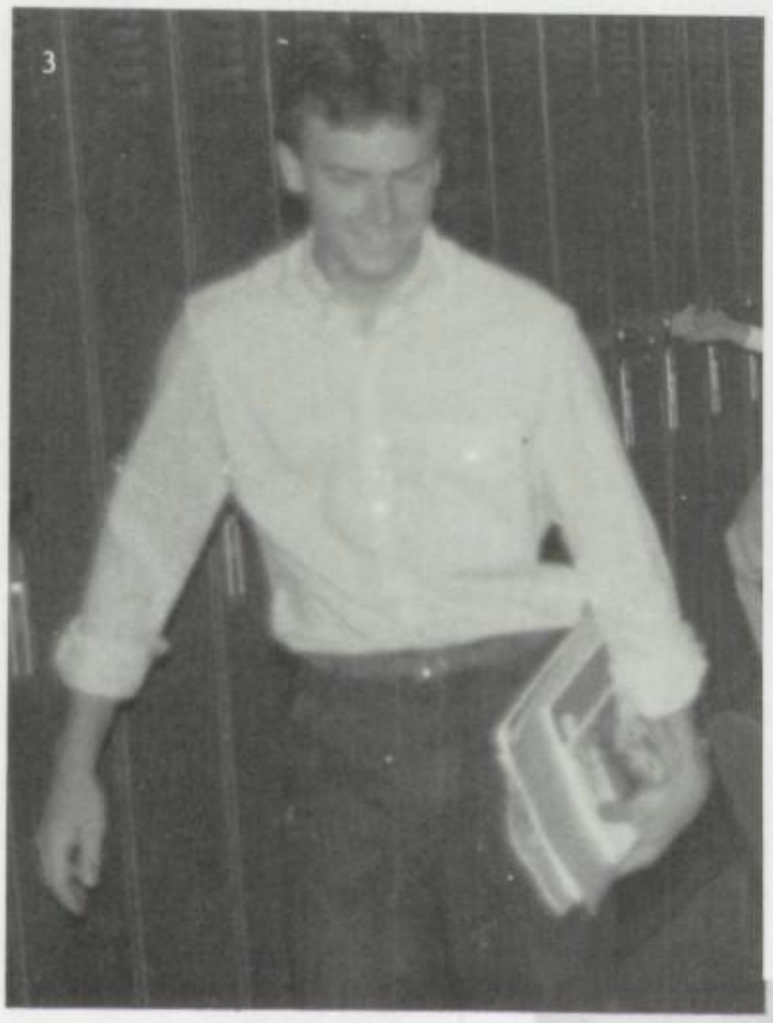
On April 27, 1985, at 6:00 AM, 15 seniors and their chaperones, Mr. and Mrs. Steve Niehaus and Don Lyons, boarded the bus headed for Kansas City, Missouri.

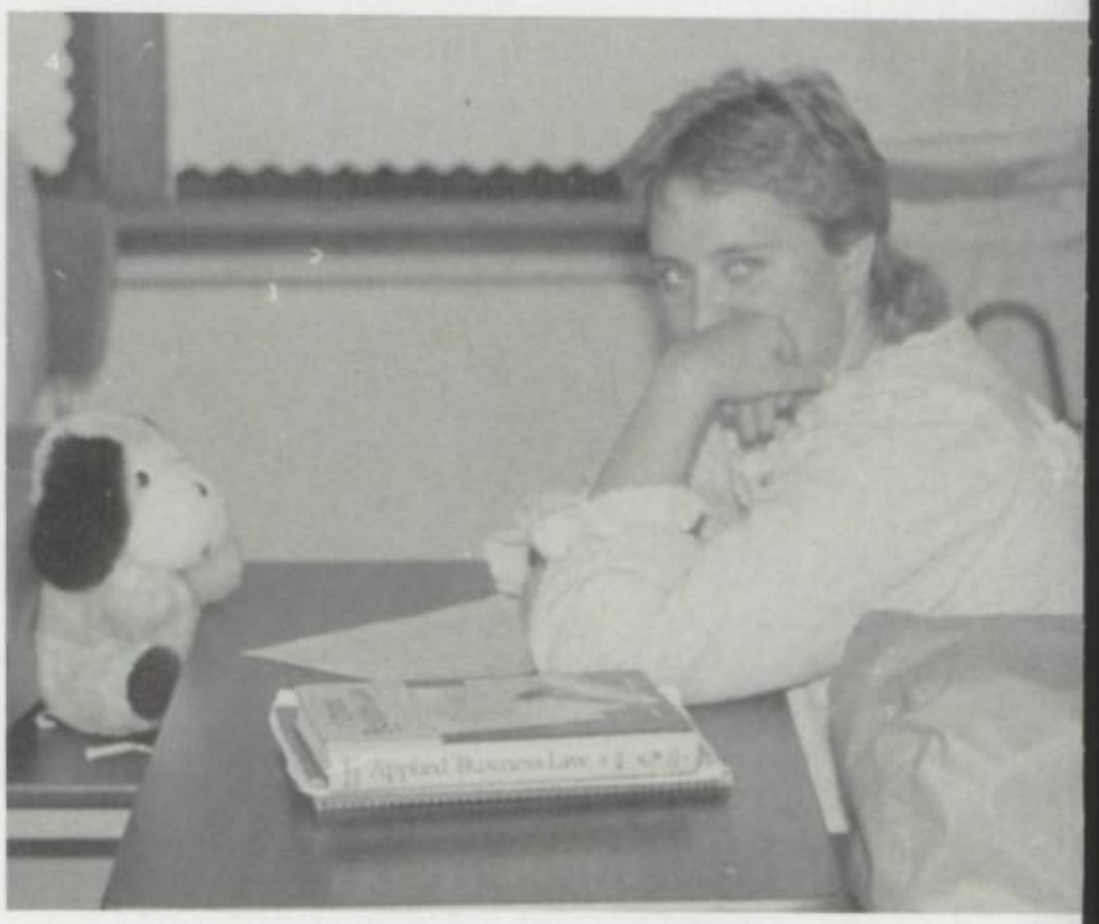
To pass the time on the six hour trip, we listened to music, slept, talked, and slept some more. We arrived at the Crown Royal Hotel at 12:30. Outside the hotel were many businessmen and women, needless to say, we didn't fit in too well dressed in our sweats and t-shirts.

That day we toured the hotel and the shopping center located within it. After tiring of that, we went swimming in the outdoor pool and spent some time in the health spa. The night was spent wandering around the hotel looking for REO Speedwagon, who were supposedly seen in the lobby.

Sunday morning, we attended a brunch at the top of the Crown Center. We wore our formals to the brunch and we were given the opportunity to try various kinds of food. After the brunch, Mr. Lyons took us on a tour of statues that ranged from humans to animals. From there, we went to Worlds of Fun and spent the day riding rides and having fun. When Worlds of Fun closed, we went for pizza at a local Pizza Hut. The pizza was good, but it didn't really compare with our earlier brunch. When we arrived at the hotel, we spent the remainder of the night swimming, lounging out, or goofing around together.

At 6:30 AM on Monday morning, we boarded the bus for Lytton, looking forward to a fun filled ride home and ½-day of school. As we left, we looked back thinking that Kansas City will never be the same.





1. Lisa- "I know its here somewhere."

2. Jason- "Stop me if you've heard this one."

3. Dennis- "Julie, Julie, Julie do you love me?"

4. Janet- conversing with the only intelligent being around.

5. Amy- "Look, its a guy!!"

6. Susanna- "If you snap that picture I'll . . ."

1984-85 YEAR END REPORT
LYTTON FUTURE FARMERS OF AMERICA

s has been an exceptional year for the Lytton FFA. The Lytton FFA has 25 in-ool members and 6 out-of-school members making a total membership of 31. s is the second year in a row and third time in 5 years that our membership has reased by 10%. This enabled us to receive another National FFA 10 PLUS chapter rd which is hanging in the ag room. The report will cover the chronological nts of the past year that the FFA has done, beginning with the summer of 1984.

FAIRS

ny of the members that raise livestock show them at fairs and we had members t competed at the Sac County and Calhoun County Fairs. Showing sheep were on Wattonville and Jarald Ackerman. Showing cattle were David Reynolds, Jason rphy, Tom Murphy and Mike Matter. Showing swine were Vernon Meyer, Brent arn, Rick Pitstick, Russ Pitstick, and Brent Lott.

had three members participate at the Iowa State Fair. Jason Wattonville did very l showing his sheep. Vernon Meyer showed swine. And for the first time in a long le there was a FFA member, Janet Everts, in the Usher Corp. that served at ndstand show and entrance gates.

LIVESTOCK JUDGING

FFA also participated at 5 livestock judging events. Team members that partici-ed in at least two of the contests received judging pins.
e are the results: Sac County: 4th and 6th
Calhoun Co.: 1st
Clay County Fair: 6th out of 48 teams
Ida Grove: 8th-also gave oral reasons
Cherokee Co. Fair: 8th place

SUMMER MEETINGS

tried to design our summer meetings to do more outside activities. In June we a project tour. We saw 7 members projects and then had hamburgers at Mr. tz's house afterward. In July we played softball against the FHA. In August we a swim with the FHA at Twin Lakes. Next year we are planning to have a tball tournament with FFA's from Sac, Lake and Rockwell City schools.

DURING THE SCHOOL YEAR - 1984

FFA had it's first formal greenhand and chapter farmer initiation. We invited nts and administrators and served homemade ice cream afterwards.

had our traditional Homecoming Breakfast and 110 people attended.

hosted a sub-district soil judging contest for the FFA's to prepare us for rict soil judging. We had 3 pits on the Alan Albright farm. Our sophomore m came in third and fifth out of 9 teams present. We then proceeded to ticipate at District which was held at Emmetsburg. Our team, consisting of ve Hinrichs, Mike Sage, Tom Murphy and Vernon Meyer, did super on the pits, our written test kept us off the top five teams to compete at State contest. sing 5th place by 5 points, we took 6th. Mike Sage was the 8th highest ividual in the contest of about 40 teams.

attended the National FFA convention held in Kansas City, Mo. Members nding were Wayne Hinrichs, Dennis Degner, Rick Pitstick, Gary Ross, Janet rts, and Colleen Williams. They saw many super speakers and also toured the A overhaul hanger.

fruit sales was outstanding as we bettered last year's profit by $550, $450 re than ever in the last 5 years.

FFA had its Christmas dinner at the Pizza Hut at Storm Lake and then toured IBP plant. We were the first group to go through that since IBP had taken over. y were killing 11,000 head of hogs a day at that time.

FFA recordbooks were turned in and each member calculated his/her net th.

1985

In January, Dennis Degner applied for his Iowa Farmer degree.

We also had three members apply for FFA proficiency awards. Brent Lott applied in the Farm Placement award and received a silver award on the district level. Rick Pitstick applied for Home and Farmstead Improvement and received a bronze. Dennis Degner applied for a sheep proficiency and received the bronze award. We hope this will start a tradition for other members to participate at these levels.

Jason Murphy, FFA Historian, sent the scrapbook onto district contest and received a bronze award. This was also a first in a long while.

SUB-DISTRICT CONTEST

Sub-district FFA speaking contest was held in Sac City this last year. The FFA really shined bright here as everything they entered went on to district competition.

District contest was held at Sibley. We had 18 members of the FFA (72%) participating at District. Brent Lott ran for District Officer and made it in as the District Sentinel. Brent Scharn and James Casey were the chapter representatives and they did a super job in helping Brent Lott get elected. Here are the results of the Sub-district and District contests:

| | | SUB-DISTRICT | DISTRICT |
|---|---|---|---|
| Greenhand Quiz: | Grant Mayer | Silver | Bronze |
| | Chris Nordin | Silver | Bronze |
| | James Degner | Gold | Bronze |
| | Russ Pitstick | Gold | Bronze |
| Creed | | Gold | Silver |

Parliamentary Procedure: Vernon Meyer, Tom Murphy, Mike Sage, David Reynolds, and Steve Hinrichs

|---|---|---|
| Extemporaneous Speaking: Dennis Degner | Gold | Silver |
| Public Speaking: Jason Wattonville | Gold | Gold |
| Job Interview: Jerald Ackerman | | Silver |
| Ag Mechanics Contest: Rick Pitstick, Gary Ross, Jason Murphy | | Bronze |

STATE CONVENTION

The state FFA convention was held at Des Moines April 18-20. We had ten members of which involved the parliamentary procedure team and Brent Scharn, Brent Lott — who served as a courtesy corp member as he was a district officer, Jason Murphy — who represented the chapter and received the BOAC award in which our chapter received a silver award on the state level and a check for $350, Dennis Degner — who received his Iowa Farmer Degree, and Jason Wattonville — who participated in the State Public Speaking contest. Jason also brought home the gold again by WINNING THE STATE PUBLIC SPEAKING CONTEST, and will be advancing to regional competition at Kansas City next November.

OTHER FFA ACTIVITIES

We served our pancake supper. Robert Degner donated a hog.

We had our parent-member banquet in which we again prepared the hog from start to finish. Dwight Mogler, our State FFA President, spoke at the banquet. Awards were given and Wally Lott received the Honorary Chapter Farmer Award.

We started up the FFA plot again by crop sharing with Darold Matter on a 7 acre plot. We hope to purchase a computer with the money we made off of it.

This year was one of the top years for the FFA and will be tough to top in the future. But the credit goes to the students who said "YES" to the challenges that laid before them.
